WHY THEY MARRY TIPLES. The society news tells us that Miss May Goelet is going to marry the Duke of Buccleuch and that Miss Paulipe Astor is going to marry his Grace of Roxburge. Mrs. Colgate has just mar-ried the Earl of Strafford.

Now is the time for all patriotic Americans to arise and cry sloud for vengeance upon the perfidious Albions. Now is the time for "all thim" the, couldn't marry an heiress to save their lives, and for all "those" who never met a lord—and never will meet oneto gnash their teeth and bowl aloud about the "sale of their girls."

What if they are sold? Who cares? What earthly difference does it make to anyone but Miss Goelet and her im mediate friends whom she marries or whether she gets married at all? Who really cares 30 cents' worth whether Miss Astor marries a duke or a crossingsweeper-except Miss Astor and the man she marries? Why shouldn't any and all these charming young persons get married early and often if they want to? As long as they are satisfied whose affair of honor is it? Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worse form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich', tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years slove. After using two bottles of Elec-tric Bitters, she is wonderfully im-proved and able to do her own work." everyone takes it for granted that she has sold herself for a title. In three cases out of ten she may do so. In seven cases out of ten she's in love with the man she marries, and, as Mr. David Warfield says with so much unction, "Can you blame her?"

A man of title is, in most instances, beater & Sons druggists. The miradle working machine is a godsand to weak, sickly, run down prople. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cts. Sold by E. L. Allen and E. S. Lead-beater & Sons druggists. beater & Sons, druggists.
